HARVEY A. WAGNER JOINS STARTEK BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DENVER, June 2, 2008 –StarTek, Inc. (NYSE: SRT) continues its rapid growth trajectory in 2008 and has added an experienced leader to its board of directors. Harvey A. Wagner joined the business process outsourcing company bringing vast knowledge in a variety of high-technology and service-oriented businesses.

Wagner is currently President, CEO and Director of Caregiver Services, Inc. a privately owned in-home assisted living firm located in Miami, Florida. He previously served as president, CEO and board member of Quovadx, a publicly traded global software and services company. Prior to joining Quovadx, Wagner served as executive vice president and chief financial officer of Mirant Corporation, an independent energy company. Wagner also served as executive vice president and chief financial officer at OptioSoftware, Inc., Scientific-Atlanta, Inc. and Premiere Technologies. He is currently a director of FormFactor, Inc. and Cree, Inc.

“Harvey’s broad financial and operational experience will be invaluable in helping guide StarTek during this exciting growth period,” said StarTek Chairman Ed Zschau.

The addition of Wagner brings the number of StarTek directors to five. Wagner will serve as chairman of StarTek’s audit committee and will also serve on the compensation and governance committees.

“Harvey’s extensive business skills bring a new and valued perspective as we embark on critical growth strategies, including international expansion,” said Larry Jones, StarTek president and CEO. “I am thrilled that Harvey has joined the StarTek team.”
